

BYLAWS OF THE MEDICAL AMATEUR RADIO COUNCIL, LIMITED

ARTICLE I Offices

The principal office of the Corporation shall be in the City of New York, County of New York, State of New York, and the Corporation may also have offices in such other places, within or without the State of New York, as the Board of Directors may from time to time appoint or its business require.

ARTICLE II Purpose

The purpose of the Medical Amateur Radio Council, Limited, is to promote good will and fellowship among amateur radio operators worldwide, who are professionals in the healing arts, or who have an interest in the various medical, dental and allied fields which constitute the healing arts. On-the-air network operation is considered an integral part of the organization's activity, and is conducted for the purpose of discussing and exchanging medical and technical information, and, whenever possible, to be of public service by assisting medical emergencies and other priority traffic.

The Medical Amateur Radio Council, Limited, is a 501 (c)(3) organization.

ARTICLE III Members

Section 1. MEMBERSHIP. The members of the Corporation shall consist of such individuals as shall be elected to membership pursuant to the bylaws, each to serve until their membership shall terminate as hereinafter provided. There shall be the following classes of membership.

- A. Regular Members. Regular members shall be licensed amateur radio operators who are
 - (1) Engaged in or retired from direct patient care, ancillary patient care, health care administration and/or management, clinical or medical teaching, and/or research in a field pertinent to health care.
 - (2) Graduates of an accredited program in the health care-related field of their endeavor
 - (3) Licensed or certified by the relevant state or national authorities. Retired members shall have held a license or certificate issued by the relevant state or local authorities while they were in active health care-related practice.
- B. Associate Members. Associate members shall be individuals who do not meet the criteria for Regular Membership. Each successful applicant for Associate Membership shall demonstrate to the satisfaction of the Board of Directors or to the Membership Committee an interest in and desire to participate beneficially in the activities of the Corporation.

Section 2. APPLICATION FOR MEMBERSHIP. Every prospective member shall submit a completed application on appropriate forms approved by the Board of Directors. Such forms shall include the applicant's amateur radio and professional qualifications and experience. The completed application shall be sent to the Membership Committee which shall determine that the form is properly completed, and which shall review the qualifications of the applicant for membership.

Section 3. ELECTION OF MEMBERS. Qualifying individuals shall become Members of the Corporation in the class of membership for which they are candidates upon election by a majority of the Membership Committee.

Section 4. RIGHTS AND PRIVILEGES OF MEMBERS. At every meeting of the members of the Corporation, each member may be entitled to one vote. Members may vote in person or by proxy. Members may, with their consent, be appointed to any standing or ad hoc committee. Only Regular members shall be eligible to be a Director or Officer of the Corporation, except that Associate members who demonstrate an extraordinary desire and facility to contribute to the Corporation may, upon approval of the Board of Directors, be declared eligible to be a Director or Officer, provided that the number of such exceptions shall not exceed two at any time.

Section 5. DUTIES OF MEMBERS. All Regular members shall maintain their amateur radio and professional standing. All members shall avoid conduct which may be contrary to the best interests of the Corporation. All members shall make timely payment of all dues and other charges for which they may become obligated, and shall promptly advise the Secretary of any change of correspondence address.

Section 6. DUES. The dues shall be determined by the Board of Directors upon recommendation from the Treasurer of the Corporation. All dues shall become due and payable on the first day of January of each year, and shall be delinquent if not paid by the first day of April thereafter. Any individual elected to membership after the first day of July of any year shall pay dues of one-half the annual rate for the remainder of that year. In selected cases, with the approval of the Board of Directors, the Secretary, Treasurer or Membership Committee may waive or modify dues.

Section 7. TERMINATION OF MEMBERSHIP. If delinquent dues or any other charges incurred by a Member are not paid within sixty (60) days after a notice of delinquent dues or other charges is sent to the Member at that person's last correspondence address as shown in the records of the Corporation, that person's Membership shall terminate automatically. Upon full payment of all delinquent amounts within ninety (90) days thereafter, the Secretary may reinstate the Membership. If the Secretary does not reinstate the Membership, the matter shall be referred to the Board of Directors at its next meeting at which a quorum is present for determination. Membership shall be reinstated by an affirmative vote of two-thirds of the Directors. Membership shall terminate automatically upon the death or imprisonment of a Member.

Section 8. RESIGNATION AND REMOVAL OF MEMBERS. Any member may resign at any time by giving written notice to the Secretary or to the Board of Directors. Such resignation shall take effect at the date of the receipt of such notice or at any stated time specified therein, and, unless otherwise specified therein, the acceptance of such resignation shall not be necessary to make it effective. Any Member may be removed from membership at any time by the Board of Directors after a hearing upon timely notice to such Member by the affirmative vote of two-thirds of the Directors at a regular or special meeting at which a quorum is present. Such Member shall have the right to be present at such hearing, the right to be represented by counsel, and the right to present evidence. The decision of the Board of Directors shall be final. The record of such hearing shall be confidential.

ARTICLE IV Meeting of Members

Section 1. ANNUAL MEETING. An annual meeting of the members shall be held at any time during each calendar year at such time and at such place as may be determined by the President, for the purpose of electing Directors and for the transaction of such other business as properly may come before the meeting.

Section 2. SPECIAL MEETINGS. Special meetings of the Members for any purpose or purposes may be called by the President, or in the absence of the President by the President-Elect, and shall be called by the President, or in the absence of the President by the President-Elect at the request in writing of a majority of the Board of Directors, or at the request in writing of not less than one-fourth of the Members.

Such request shall state the purpose or purposes of the proposed meeting.

Section 3. PLACE OF MEETING. The President, or in the absence of the President, the President-Elect, may designate any place as the place of meeting for any annual meeting or for any special meeting. Members may attend meetings remotely, by means of telecommunication.

Section 4. NOTICE OF MEETINGS. Notice of the place, date and time of any meeting of Members shall be published in the organization's newsletter and, as appropriate, communicated electronically to the membership not less than thirty (30) nor more than one hundred eighty (180) days before the date of such meeting, by or at the direction of the President or Secretary, or the Officers or Members calling the meeting. In the case of a special meeting, or when required by statute or by these bylaws, the purpose or purposes for which the meeting is called shall be stated in the notice.

Section 5. QUORUM. One third of the voting members, shall constitute a quorum at any meeting. If a quorum is not present at any meeting of Members, those voting members who are present constitute a quorum.

Section 6. PROXIES. At any meeting of Members, a Member entitled to vote may vote either in person or by proxy executed in writing by the Member or the Member's duly authorized attorney-in-fact. No proxy shall be valid after eleven (11) months from the date of its execution or after the annual meeting of Members next held after the execution of the proxy, whichever is shorter.

ARTICLE V Board of Directors

Section 1. GENERAL POWERS AND DUTIES. The property, affairs and business of the Corporation shall be managed and controlled, and all corporate powers shall be exercised by or under the authority of its Board of Directors. Duties of Directors shall include, but not be limited to: (1) attendance at the annual meeting of the Members and Board of Directors meetings. If a Director is unable to attend the annual meeting, that Director may deputize an alternate from the same district to attend in the Director's stead; (2) maintenance of contact with Members in their respective districts, as appropriate; (3) answering inquiries regarding membership from prospective members in their respective districts and (4) contributing articles to the Newsletter as regards Corporation activities in their respective districts.

Section 2. ELECTIONS NUMBER AND TENURE. The number of Directors shall be twenty one (21), and such number may be diminished to not less than six (6) by Amendment of these bylaws. Directors must be Regular members in good standing, or Associate members as provided for in Article III, Section 4 of these bylaws. Directors may succeed themselves in office.

The Board of Directors shall consist of the President, the President-Elect, the Treasurer, the Secretary, and the Newsletter Editor of the Corporation. In addition, five (5) Directors-at-Large, one of whom must be the immediate past-President and eleven (11) District Directors shall constitute the Board.

The President, President-Elect, Treasurer, Secretary, and Newsletter Editor shall serve as Directors upon election to and during their tenure in their respective offices.

The Directors-at-Large shall be elected by the Members at the annual meeting of the Members by a plurality of the votes cast.

The District Directors shall be elected at the annual meeting of the Members by a plurality of the votes cast by the Members present. A Director will be elected from each of the ten FCC Amateur Radio Districts. In addition, a Director residing outside the United States will be elected. District Directors shall be residents of the district in which they serve, unless there is no qualified resident in such District willing to serve, in which event this requirement shall be waived.

Nominations for Directors may be made by a nominating committee to be designated by the President, and may be made during the course of the annual meeting. The Directors of the corporation shall be elected annually by the Members present at the annual meeting. The term of District Directors and Directors-at-Large shall be one year.

Section 3. REGULAR MEETINGS. A regular annual meeting of the Board of Directors shall be held during, immediately before, or immediately after, and at the same place as the annual meeting of the Members. The Board of Directors may provide by resolution the time and place for the holding of additional regular meetings of the Board without other notice than such resolution.

Section 4. SPECIAL MEETINGS. Special meetings of the Board of Directors shall be held whenever called by the President or by three (3) of the Directors. Four (4) weeks notice of each such meeting shall be delivered to each Director at the Director's correspondence address.

Section 5. URGENT MEETINGS. If certain business is deemed by the President to be urgent, the President may convene a meeting of the Board of Directors without four (4) weeks notice. Such meetings may deal only with the urgent business at hand, and may be conducted by mail or telecommunication.

Section 6. QUORUM AND MANNER OF ACTING. Seven (7) of the Board of Directors, at the time of any meeting of the Board of Directors shall constitute a quorum for the transaction of business at such meeting, and, except as otherwise required by statute or by the Certification of Incorporation or by these By-Laws, the act of a majority of the Directors present at any meeting, at which a quorum is present, shall be the act of the Board of Directors. In the absence of a quorum, those members present shall constitute a quorum.

Section 7. RESIGNATION AND REMOVAL OF DIRECTORS. Any director may resign at any time by giving written notice to the Secretary of the Corporation or to the Board of Directors. Such resignation shall take effect at the date of receipt of such notice or at any later time specified therein, and, unless otherwise specified therein and the acceptance of such resignation shall not be necessary to make it effective. Any Director may be removed from office at any time with or without cause by the Board of Directors by the affirmative vote of two-thirds of the Directors at a regular or special meeting at which a quorum is present.

Section 8. VACANCIES. In case any vacancy shall occur in the Board of Directors because of death, resignation, or removal, or in case any newly created Directorship shall result from any increase in the authorized number of Directors, the Board of Directors may, at any regular or special meeting, by a vote of a majority of the Directors then in office, though less than a quorum, elect a Director to fill such vacancy for the unexpired portion of the term or to fill the newly created Directorship until the next annual meeting of the Members. The Director so elected shall hold office until a successor shall be duly elected. Any such vacancy resulting from any cause whatsoever, or any such newly created Directorship, if not filled in the manner described above, may be filled by the Members at the next annual meeting of Members or at a special meeting thereof held for the purpose.

ARTICLE VI Officers

Section 1. OFFICERS. The Officers of the Corporation shall be:

- 1 President
- 2 President-Elect
- 3 Such number of Vice-Presidents, if any, as may be determined from time to time by the Board of Directors or by the Executive Committee.
- 4 Treasurer
- 5 Secretary
- 6 Newsletter Editor
- 7 Assistant Treasurer, if any, or such number of Assistant Treasurers as may be determined from time to time by the Board of Directors or the Executive Committee.
- 8 Assistant Secretary, if any, or such number of Assistant Secretaries as may be determined from time to time by the Board of Directors or the Executive Committee.

- 9 Assistant Newsletter Editor, if any, or such number of Assistant Newsletter Editors as may be determined from time to time by the Board of Directors.

All officers must be Regular Members in good standing, except that Associate Members may be eligible to hold office as provided for in Article III, Section 4 of these bylaws. No person may hold more than one office.

Section 2. NOMINATION, ELECTION AND TERM OF OFFICE. Nomination for officers, except the office of President, may be made by a nominating committee appointed by the President, solicited through the Newsletter, or through the organization's telecommunications capabilities prior to the annual meeting. Any Member may make nominations for officers, except the President, from the floor at the annual meeting. The term of office for all officers shall be two (2) years, commencing at the annual meeting at which they are elected. If the election of officers shall not be held at such a meeting, such election shall be held as soon thereafter as may be convenient. Vacancies may be filled or new offices created and filled at any meeting of the Board of Directors or of the Executive Committee. Each officer shall hold office until a successor shall have been duly elected or appointed unless prior thereto the officer dies, resigns or is removed from office.

Section 3. RESIGNATION, AND REMOVAL OF OFFICERS. Any officer may resign at any time by giving written notice to the Secretary of the Corporation or to the Board of Directors. Any such resignation shall take effect at the date of the receipt thereof or at any later date specified therein, and, unless otherwise specified therein, the acceptance of such resignation shall not be necessary to make it effective. Any officer or agent may be removed, either with or without cause, by the affirmative vote of two-thirds of the Directors at a regular or special meeting at which a quorum is present, or by any committee or superior officer upon whom such power of removal may be conferred by the Board of Directors.

Section 4. VACANCIES. A vacancy in any office because of death, resignation, removal or otherwise, may be filled by the Board of Directors or by the Executive Committee for the unexpired portion of the term, subject, however, to the approval of the Board of Directors at its next meeting.

Section 5. PRESIDENT. The president shall be the principal executive officer of the Corporation and shall in general supervise and control all of the business and affairs of the Corporation subject, however, to the control of the Board of Directors and the Executive Committee. The President shall preside at all meetings of the Members of the Corporation, of the Board of Directors as Chairman of the Board of Directors, and of the Executive Committee as Chairman of the Executive Committee. The President shall be given notice of, and shall have the right to attend and vote at, all committee meetings, but, unless designated as a regular member of a committee, the President shall be under no obligation to attend its meetings and shall not be counted to determine the number necessary to make a quorum or to determine whether or not a quorum is present. The President shall in general perform all duties incident to the position of principal executive officer and such other duties as may from time to time be assigned.

Section 6. PRESIDENT-ELECT. In the absence of the President, or in the event of the President's inability or refusal to act, the President-Elect shall perform all the duties of the President, and, when so acting, shall have all the powers of and shall be subject to all the restrictions upon the President. The President-Elect shall be given notice of, and shall have the right to attend and vote at, all committee meetings, but, unless designated as a regular member of a committee, the President-Elect shall be under no obligation to attend its meetings and shall not be counted to determine the number necessary to make a quorum or to determine whether or not a quorum is present. The President-Elect shall perform such other duties as, from time to time, may be assigned. The President-Elect shall become President upon the death, resignation, retirement, or removal of the President, or at the time of the next election of Officers at the annual meeting of Members, whichever first occurs. If the President-Elect shall become President upon the death, resignation, retirement or removal of a President who has served in Office for more than four (4) months, the Members at the next annual meeting of Members may by resolution direct that the President-Elect continue to serve as President until the next annual meeting of Members, and either reelect the President elect or elect a new President-Elect.

Section 7. TREASURER. If required by the Board of Directors, the Treasurer shall give a bond for the faithful discharge of the duties of the office in such sum and with such surety or sureties as the Board of Directors shall determine. The Treasurer shall have charge and custody of, and be responsible for all funds and securities of the Corporation, receive, and give receipts for, money due and payable to the Corporation from any source whatsoever, and cause all such moneys to be deposited in the name of the Corporation in such banks, trust companies or other depositories as shall be selected in accordance with the provisions of Article VIII of these bylaws; and in general perform all the duties incident to the office of Treasurer and such other duties as from time to time may be assigned.

Section 8. ASSISTANT TREASURERS. At the request of the Treasurer, or in the absence or disability of the Treasurer, the Assistant Treasurers shall perform all of the duties of the Treasurer, and when so acting shall have all of the powers of, and be subject to, all of the restrictions upon the treasurer. They shall perform such other duties as from time to time may be assigned to them.

Section 9. SECRETARY. The Secretary shall keep the minutes of the meetings of the Members, of the Board of Directors and of the Executive Committee; see that all notices are duly given in accordance with the provisions of these bylaws and as required by law; be custodian of the corporate records, and of the seal of the Corporation and see that the seal of the Corporation is affixed to all documents, the execution of which on behalf of the Corporation under its seal is duly authorized in accordance with the provisions of these bylaws; keep a register of the correspondence address of each Member or Director which shall be furnished to the Secretary by such Member or Director; and perform all duties incident to the office of Secretary and such other duties as from time to time may be assigned.

Section 10. ASSISTANT SECRETARIES. At the request of the Secretary or in the absence or disability of the Secretary, the Assistant Secretaries shall perform all of the duties of the Secretary and when so acting they shall have all the powers of, and be subject to all of the restrictions upon, the Secretary. They shall perform such other duties as from time to time may be assigned.

Section 11. NEWSLETTER EDITOR. The Newsletter Editor shall be responsible for the periodic compilation, editing, and publishing of the MARCO Newsletter, the official publication of the Corporation. It shall be the responsibility of the Newsletter Editor to see that said publication is distributed to the members in a timely fashion.

Section 12. ASSISTANT NEWSLETTER EDITORS. At the request of the Newsletter Editor or in the absence or disability of the Newsletter Editor, the Assistant Newsletter Editors shall perform all of the duties of the Newsletter Editor and when so acting they shall have all the powers of and be subject to all of the restrictions upon the Newsletter Editor. They shall perform such other duties as from time to time may be assigned to them.

Section 13. STANDING COMMITTEES

A. Membership Committee.

- (1). The purpose of the Membership Committee is to review and approve or disapprove all applications for membership to the organization, as specified in Article III, Sections 2 and 3 of these Bylaws.
- (2). The committee shall have three (3) members, one of whom shall be the Secretary of the Corporation. The Secretary shall serve as chairperson of the committee.
- (3). The committee shall furnish a written report of its activities to the Board of Directors at each meeting of the Board.

B. Technology Committee

- (1). The purpose of the Technology Committee is to oversee and manage the presence and affairs of the Corporation on public and private media sites, and to monitor technical developments in on-air amateur radio communications and make pertinent recommendations in regard to the organization's on-air activities. The committee's responsibilities may include, but are not limited to creating and maintaining Web pages, curating the participation of the organization on social media, and maintaining electronic communication and document sharing among the members of the Corporation.

(2). The committee shall have a minimum of three members. The chairperson of the committee shall be an individual with sufficient knowledge and expertise in the requisite subject areas to ensure that the purpose of the committee is met.

(3). The committee shall furnish a written report of its activities to the Board of Directors at each meeting of the Board.

Section 14. AD HOC COMMITTEES

A. The Board of Directors or the President may create ad hoc committees to address issues as they may arise.

B. Ad hoc committees will dissolve after a two-year period from the time of their creation, unless this term is extended by action of the Board of Directors or by the President.

C. Each ad hoc committee shall furnish a written report of its activities to the Board of Directors at each meeting of the Board.

ARTICLE VII Compensation

None of the Members, Directors, or Officers of the Corporation, shall receive any compensation whatever for their services, but any Member, Director, or Officer may be reimbursed for expenses incurred in connection with the activities of the Corporation. The Corporation may employ such agents, representatives, or employees as may be necessary properly to carry out the object and purposes for which the Corporation is formed.

ARTICLE VIII Contracts, Loans, Checks, Drafts, Bank Accounts, Proxies

Section 1. CONTRACTS ETC., HOW EXECUTED. The Board of Directors, except as otherwise provided in these bylaws, may authorize any Officer or Officers or agent or agents of the Corporation to enter into any contract or execute and deliver any instrument in the name and on behalf of the Corporation, and such authority may be general or confined to specific instances; and unless so authorized, no officer, agent or employee shall have any power or authority to bind the Corporation by any contract or engagement or to pledge its credit or to render it liable peculiarly for any purpose or to any amount.

Section 2. LOANS. No loan shall be contracted on behalf of the Corporation, and no negotiable paper shall be issued in its name, unless authorized by the Board of Directors. When authorized to do so, any Officer or agent of the Corporation may effect loans and advances at any time for the Corporation from any Bank, trust company or other institution, or from any firm, corporation or individual, and for such loans and advances may make, execute and deliver promissory notes or other evidence of indebtedness of the Corporation, and, when authorized as aforesaid, as security for the payment of any and all loans, advances, indebtedness and liabilities of the Corporation, may mortgage, pledge, hypothecate or transfer any real or personal property at any time held by the corporation and to that end execute instruments or mortgage or pledge or otherwise transfer said property, provided, however, that any sale, mortgage or lease of real property shall be in accordance with the provisions of Section 21 of the Membership Corporations Law of the State of New York. Such authority may be general or confined to specific instances.

Section 3. CHECKS, DRAFTS, ETC. All checks, drafts or other orders for the payment of money, notes or other evidences of indebtedness issued in the name of the Corporation shall be signed by such person or persons and in such manner as shall, from time to time, be determined by the Board of Directors.

Section 4. DEPOSITS. All funds of the Corporation shall be deposited to the credit of the Corporation under such conditions and in such banks, trust companies or other depositories as the Board of Directors and for the purposes of such deposit any person or persons to whom such power is designated may endorse, assign and deliver checks, drafts, and other orders for the payment of money which are payable to the order of the Corporation.

Section 5. PROXIES. Unless otherwise provided by the Board of Directors, either the President or the President-Elect may, from time to time, appoint an attorney or attorneys or agent or agents of the Corporation in the name and on behalf of the Corporation to cast the vote which the Corporation may be entitled to cast, as a stockholder or otherwise in any other corporation any of whose stock or other securities are held by the Corporation, at meetings of the holders of the stock or other securities of such other corporation, and may instruct the person or persons so appointed as to the manner of casting such vote or giving such consent, and may execute or cause to be executed in the name and on behalf of the Corporation and under its seal written proxies or other instruments as he/she may deem necessary or proper in the premises.
